Kodaikanal is known as the “Princess of Hills”. Founded in 1983, the Kodaikanal school has one of the most beautiful campuses in India – nestled in a valley amidst pear orchards with a panoramic view of the 60 acre Kodaikanal lake. Several dozen pear trees and other native flora adorn this beautiful campus. The school has 400+ students in classes K-12. All students can learn to their fullest potential. Student learning will be enhanced by national, global, and multicultural perspectives. Graduates will possess the basic knowledge and skills that will assure their proficiency in problem solving and technology. They will be responsible citizens, lifelong learners, and be prepared for a variety of post-graduation options.
